

Brooklyn Economic Development Corporation (BEDC) is proud to be a member of the 2010 M/WBE Leadership Association, a group of business service organizations helping the New York City Department of Small Business Services promote and foster the growth of local minority and women-owned businesses through certification and capacity-building services.

- Does your firm sell goods or services government buys?
- Interested in getting certified as a Minority or Women-owned Business Enterprise? (M/WBE)?
- Want to learn how to compete in the government marketplace?

We can help. As a select member of the New York City Council-supported 2010 M/WBE Leadership Association, BEDC has the tools, knowledge, and experience to get you started. Call us today at (718) 368-6790 or email us at mwbe@bedc.org.

Brooklyn Economic Development Corporation (BEDC)
Kingsborough Community College
2001 Oriental Blvd, Room T-4162
Brooklyn, New York 11235
Phone (718) 368-6790 ■ Fax (718) 368-6788 ■ info@bedc.org ■ www.bedc.org

BEDC, a private, nonprofit organization, was established in 1979 to stimulate Brooklyn's economy and create job opportunities for the borough and its residents. BEDC has evolved into a multi-service, business-consulting agency, serving more than 1,000 clients annually and offering comprehensive economic development services. More information is available at www.bedc.org.

This program was made possible by the New York City Council
For more information on SBS M/WBE program, please visit www.nyc.gov/buycertified